STUDENT DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATE

Hudson County Community College is an award-winning, comprehensive urban college with two campuses located just minutes from Manhattan in Jersey City and Union City, NJ. The Journal Square campus sits at the center of Journal Square in the center of Jersey City, next to a major PATH station and transportation hub, while the Union City campus sits adjacent to a vital light rail station.

Fully accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education, the College offers courses and classes in a wide variety of disciplines to the people and businesses of Hudson County, one of the most historic and ethnically diverse areas of the United States. The College was recognized with the 2012 Association of Community College Trustees (ACCT) Northeast Regional Equity Award, was a finalist for the American Association of Community Colleges' (AACC) Student Success Award, and was presented with the New Jersey Business & Industry Association's Good Neighbor Awards in 2009 for the Culinary Arts Conference Center and in 2012 for the North Hudson Campus Project, and in 2015 for the state-of-the-art, award-winning Glen Gabert Library Building.

The College is currently searching for an experienced full-time STUDENT DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATE. Reporting to the Executive Director of the North Hudson Campus, the Student Development Associate is responsible for providing academic, student services and program information to prospective students and the general public. Additional duties include but are not limited to: assisting students in completing and processing forms and records required by the College; assisting students in planning, creating and implementing a course schedule that is compatible with their goals and with the requirements of the intended academic program; proctor placement tests as needed; assure confidentiality of test results and directly work with the support staff and provide input to their evaluation. In addition, the Student Development Associate participates in special projects as assigned, and proactively tracks status of work in progress; independently initiates necessary follow-up action to ensure adherence to established project timeframes; and effectively collaborates with others to contribute to the project completion.

Requirements: Bachelor's Degree or Associates Degree with five years of relevant work experience, Master's Degree in Student Development, counseling or a related field preferred. At least three years related work experience. Superior communication, interpersonal skills and organizational abilities. Demonstrated problem solving and conflict resolution ability. Computer literate with strong knowledge of Microsoft Office Suite including Access, Excel and experience with Ellucian (formally Datatel) Colleague or similar higher education platform required. Familiarity with state and federal regulations regarding financial aid and student records.

To Apply: Send letter of application, resume, salary requirements and names/contact information of three professional references.
