PT Certified Nurse Aide Instructor

(Posting date: 10/10/19)

College Overview

Hudson County Community College (HCCC) is an award-winning, comprehensive urban college with three campuses located just minutes from Manhattan in Jersey City, Secaucus, and Union City, New Jersey. The Journal Square campus sits in the center of Jersey City, next to a major PATH station and transportation hub, while the North Hudson Campus in Union City sits adjacent to a vital light rail station; the Secaucus campus has abundant parking.

Fully accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education, the College offers courses and classes in a wide variety of disciplines to the people and businesses of Hudson County, one of the most historic and ethnically diverse areas of the United States. HCCC was recognized with the 2012 Association of Community College Trustees (ACCT) Northeast Regional Equity Award, was one of just five finalists for the American Association of Community Colleges' (AACCC) Student Success Award, and was presented with a series of New Jersey Business & Industry Association's Good Neighbor Awards: 2009 for the Culinary Conference Center, 2012 for the North Hudson Campus, and 2015 for the award-winning Gabert Library. In 2017, the College acquired the CarePoint School of Nursing (formerly Christ Hospital School of Nursing) and has since transitioned it to the fully-accredited HCCC School of Nursing, with its students performing among the highest in New Jersey on their NCLEX exams. In 2019, the College joined Achieving the Dream as part of its expanding efforts towards continuous improvement in its student success work. The Culinary Arts Institute is continually recognized as one of the finest in the nation.

The Continuing Education and Workforce Development Division is currently searching for an experienced classroom and clinical Certified Nurse Aide Instructor (CNA). The instructor must possess the ability to work with students from different socioeconomic and educational backgrounds. The CNA Instructor will teach a maximum of twenty-four (24) hours a week and the salary of employment will be contracted per hour. The CNA instructor will be responsible for maintaining accurate individual student records as mandated by NJ Department of Health and Senior Services (NJDHSS), including students' physicals, attendance, skills and written test results. The CNA instructor will be responsible for submitting applications, schedule and signature forms to NJDHSS in a timely manner and observing and instructing students in the classroom and clinical setting. The CNA instructor will register and schedule students for skills and written competency examinations, communicate effectively with students, and all those affiliated with the course, including staff at clinical training sites, staff, skills evaluator and prospective employers. The CNA instructor will be expected to provide a stimulating environment that encourages student participation, interpersonal skills, development, and concepts of resident care.

Candidate must be currently licensed in New Jersey as a registered professional nurse for at least three years and be an approved instructor by the NJ State Department of Health and Senior Services. Possess at least one (1) year of full-time experience or equivalent as a registered professional nurse in a licensed long-term care facility. Ability to work on mornings and/or evenings. Excellent organizational skills. Ability to occasionally work independently.
