HUDSON COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE FOUNDATION’S 17TH ANNUAL ‘HOLIDAY EXTRAVAGANZA’ IS A RECORD-BREAKING SUCCESS

Hudson County Community College (HCCC) Vice President for Development Joseph Sansone announced today that the HCCC Foundation’s 2014 gala fundraiser was the most successful to date. Mr. Sansone said the 17th Annual “Holiday Extravaganza” grossed a record-breaking $208,000. The event was held on December 4th at the College’s Culinary Conference Center in Jersey City. Proceeds from the event will be dedicated to scholarships for deserving students, faculty development programs, and the College’s physical expansion.

In celebration of the College’s 40th Anniversary, the theme of this year’s gala was “Travel back to the Beginning ... 1974.” The décor and menu reflected trends and cuisine that were popular in 1974. A PowerPoint presentation ran throughout the evening and displayed cultural icons of the time of the College’s founding, including TV shows, movies, music, national politics and fashion that were prominent in 1974. The evening’s hospitality hour and gourmet dinner feast were prepared by the chefs/instructors of the College’s nationally acclaimed Culinary Arts Institute. Students from the HCCC Culinary Arts/Hospitality Management program provided the stellar service during the event.

Another highlight of the event was the special recognition of Hudson County Executive Thomas A. DeGise, who was honored for his steadfast support of Hudson County Community College and its students with the 2014 HCCC Foundation “Distinguished Community Service Award.” Mr. DeGise has been particularly instrumental in supporting the College’s physical expansion. Since he became the County Executive in 2002, the College has completed from-the-ground-up construction of three new facilities – the Culinary Conference Center and Library Building in Jersey City’s Journal Square, and the North Hudson Higher Education Center in Union City. In addition, HCCC has renovated several other buildings in the Journal Square area, including 2 Enos Place, 70 Sip Avenue, and One PATH Plaza.

The Hudson County Community College Foundation is a nonprofit 501 (c) 3 corporation giving tax-exempt status to contributors. Since the Foundation was established in 1997, it has provided over $2 million in scholarships to more than 2,000 students.
Dear Friends of Hudson County Community College Foundation:

2014 was a wonderful year for Hudson County Community College – our students, community, and this Foundation. In addition to celebrating the College’s 40th Anniversary, we also applauded as more than 925 HCCC graduates walked across the stage at the 36th Annual Commencement Exercises in May. We commemorated the opening of the HCCC Library Building in September, and gathered for the Foundation’s 17th Annual “Holiday Extravaganza” in December, which grossed a record-breaking $208,000.

Almost 90% of HCCC students are eligible for federal financial aid. Since its establishment in 1997, this Foundation has provided more than $2 million in scholarships and book and knife vouchers to deserving students. The assistance provided by Foundation supporters is especially helpful to HCCC students as funding from federal, state and other sources has been reduced these past few years. Additionally, Foundation donors support the HCCC Summer Bridge and Life Skill College Transitional Programs, which help provide students with a more solid base for academic success.

Foundation donors’ generosity also plays an important role in the College’s growth, with stipends for faculty development, and capital to assist in physical expansion and upgrades. Further, the Foundation Art Collection, which was instituted in 2006, now includes more than 800 works of art. These are paintings, photographs, sketches, sculptures and three-dimensional works by some of America’s finest artists that are permanently installed in every one of the College’s buildings to be enjoyed and to inspire.

Sincere thanks to all of you who support the Foundation, and who participate in and contribute to our events throughout the year. This publication will provide just a glimpse of some of the many ways you have helped our students to fulfill their educational aspirations, the College to advance, and Hudson County to be a better educated, stronger community with a brighter future.

Best wishes for a wonderful 2015. We look forward to your continuing support.

Warm regards,

Joseph D. Sansone
Vice President for Development

THE SOUTHPOLE FOUNDATION SUPPORTS HCCC FOUNDATION

The Southpole Foundation, a supporter of the College since 2005, presented HCCC with a check for $14,000. The Southpole Foundation was started back in 2004 by David Khym, founder of Southpole and Wicked Fashions, Inc. Khym started the foundation in order to give back and support the local communities. The Southpole Foundation has helped in creating over 50 scholarships for the College.

HCCC FOUNDATION’S 17TH ANNUAL ‘HOLIDAY EXTRAVAGANZA’ IS A RECORD-BREAKING SUCCESS

In addition, the HCCC Foundation established the Foundation Art Collection eight years ago to coincide with the initiation of the College’s Fine Arts studies program. Presently, the Collection includes more than 800 paintings, lithographs, photographs, sculptures, and other works-of-art that are displayed throughout all of the buildings on the College’s Journal Square Campus and at the North Hudson Higher Education Center. Artists in the Collection include: Donald Baechler, Leonard Baskin, Elizabeth Catlett, Christo, Willie Cole, Edward S. Curtis, Marcel Duchamp, Lisa Parker Hyatt, Rockwell Kent, Joseph Kosuth, Valeri Larko, Roy Lichtenstein, Reginald Marsh, Méré Oppenheim, Robert Rauschenberg, Man Ray, Mickalene Thomas, and William Wegman. The Foundation also hosts a series of lectures called “Arts Talks,” which feature prominent artists and art authorities and scholars and are open to the general public.

The HCCC Foundation’s Board of Directors also organizes and holds an annual Golf Outing, “Night at the Races,” and the HCCC Employee Scholarship Luncheon. There are other events held throughout the year to build scholarship funds for students specifically from Hudson County’s northern and western municipalities.

rea business people and residents are invited to take advantage of Hudson County Community College (HCCC) Foundation's Subscription Dining Series, which offers world-class dining experience at lunchtime on eight Friday afternoons this Spring. (February 27, March 6, March 13, March 20, March 27, April 17, April 24, and May 1) The proceeds from the Series are utilized to provide much-needed financial assistance to deserving students.

The Subscription Dining Series was instituted after several business people expressed their desire to the College — which has received national acclaim for the HCCC Culinary Arts Institute (CAI) — for more fine dining options.

The HCCC Foundation Subscription Dining Series offers opportunities for groups of four diners to enjoy delicious, four-course meals. The food and service are coordinated through collaboration of Externships, Hotel Practicums and Restaurant Operations Management classes through the cooperation of Ara Karakashian and Janine Nunez under the direction of Ms. Tonja Jefferson-Webb and Chef A. Pukdeedamrongrit. All baked items and desserts are prepared under the direction of Chef Wendy Ann Schonberg, Chef Marissa Lontoc and Chef Courtney Payne.

The luncheons — which include soup, appetizer, entrée, and dessert courses accompanied by non-alcoholic beverages (beer, wine and cocktails are available at an additional charge) — are held in the elegantly appointed Banquet Room of the HCCC Culinary Conference Center at 161 Newkirk Street in Jersey City, just two blocks from the Journal Square PATH Station, and directly across the street from a public parking structure. All service at the luncheons is provided by the professionally trained CAI students.

Joseph Sansone, HCCC Vice President for Development, said that the cost for subscription in the series is priced at a very value-conscious $995.00. "When you think about it, that comes to $31.10 per person/per meal. There aren’t many fine dining establishments where you may enjoy a gourmet, four-course meal for so little," he said. "What’s more, the subscription fee is also a tax-exempt donation that helps the Foundation provide much-needed scholarships to Hudson County students," Mr. Sansone stated.

To obtain further details on the Subscription Dining Series and to secure a subscription, interested persons are asked to phone 201-360-4006 or email jsansone@hccc.edu.

THE HCCC 9/11 MONUMENT

The 9/11 Monument is a memorial of the tragic events of September 11, 2001. The Twin Towers’ burning and eventual collapse were visible to hundreds of HCCC students from the front of what is now the Library Building. The HCCC 9/11 Monument has been positioned on the Rooftop Terrace (Sixth Floor) of the Library Building, so that the new Freedom Tower serves as its backdrop.

The College had the privilege to acquiring a remnant piece of steel that was once part of a structural column at the World Trade Center. It is displayed on a pedestal created by New Jersey artist Billy Economou, who is renowned for his sculptural works, which force steel into sweeping, natural forms.

The pedestal was commissioned by the College’s Board of Trustees. The polished, straight, rectangular-shaped base was designed to serve as a visual continuation of the rectangular shape of the rusted, mangled steel resting above, and to symbolize America’s strength, resiliency, and determination in moving forward.

The Hudson County Community College Foundation is proud to have made funding for the 9/11 Monument possible.

HCCC FOUNDATION’S ‘ARTS TALK SERIES’
PRESENTATION ON FEBRUARY 28

The Hudson County Community College Foundation Art Collection was established eight years ago to coincide with the initiation of the College’s Fine Arts studies program.

The Collection is intended to enrich the lives of the community and to provide a point of reference and inspiration for the HCCC Fine Arts students. The works of art – paintings, lithographs, photographs, sculptures, and other pieces – are displayed throughout all of the buildings on the College’s Journal Square Campus and at the North Hudson Higher Education Center. Artists in the Collection include: Donald Baechler, Leonard Baskin, Elizabeth Catlett, Christo, Willie Cole, Edward S. Curtis, Marcel Duchamp, Lisa Parker Hyatt, Rockwell Kent, Joseph Kosuth, Valeri Larko, Roy Lichtenstein, Reginald Marsh, Méré Oppenheim, Robert Rauschenberg, Man Ray, Mickalene Thomas, and William Wegman.

The HCCC Foundation Art Collection has since grown to include more than 800 works, thanks to the generosity of Foundation benefactors and others. Many pieces have been directly donated by individuals, estates, corporations, and other organizations.

Monetary donations to the HCCC Foundation Art Collection are maximized by matching funds; for each dollar contributed, the HCCC Foundation and the College each match the gift. Donations are utilized not only for acquiring works of art, but also for special events (such as the Foundation “Arts Talks”), and items in-kind, such as art books for the College Library.

To donate, please contact Joseph Sansone, Vice President for Development, Hudson County Community College Foundation, 70 Sip Avenue – Fourth Floor, Jersey City, NJ 07306. You may also email Mr. Sansone at jsansone@hccc.edu or phone him at 201-360-4006.

IN MEMORIAM: BENJAMIN J. DINEEN III

Hudson County Community College pauses to remember the life and contributions of philanthropist Benjamin J. Dineen III, who passed on April 23, 2014.

He was a longtime member and officer of the Hudson County Community College Foundation Board of Directors, and was instrumental in starting the HCCC Foundation Art Collection. Professionally, Dineen was most recently director of resource development and marketing for the United Way of Hudson County.

In 2013, Dineen and his partner, Dennis C. Hull, made a historic gift of more than 230 works of art from their personal collection to the College. The art gallery on the sixth floor of the Library Building has been named in their honor.

SAINT PETER’S UNIVERSITY TRANSFER SCHOLARSHIP

T he Hudson County Community College Foundation has approved a scholarship for students who are graduating from HCCC and transferring to Saint Peter’s University.

Two scholarships of $10,000 each will be awarded, renewable for one year.

Students receiving this scholarship will have an opportunity to receive support through their senior year, provided that they maintain eligibility requirements.

The development of this scholarship follows the signing by Saint Peter’s University and Hudson County Community College of a letter of Intent to create “2 + 2 Articulation Agreements.” The agreement will facilitate the seamless transfer of students who complete an associate degree at Hudson County Community College in Criminal Justice, Business Administration, Environmental Studies or Education. These students will have full junior status upon transfer to Saint Peter’s University.

HCCC FOUNDATION ‘ARTS TALK’ FEATURES LEADING EXPERT IN RECOVERING STOLEN ART

O n Friday, Nov. 7, Sharon Cohen Levin, Chief of Asset Forfeiture and Money Laundering, U.S. Attorney’s Office for the Southern District of New York, who is one of the nation’s leading art crime solvers, gave a fascinating talk in the Follett Lounge at Hudson County Community College, in the Culinary Conference Center. Levin spoke about recovering stolen Nazi loot and art, specifically, Egon Schiele’s Portrait of Wally. This was an excellent social history talk, especially for people interested in criminal justice, history, sociology, or art. Thanks to the community for the lively Q & A period. We learned a lot!
SPECIAL THANKS TO THE HCCC FOUNDATION ANGELS

We are grateful to everyone who has supported our students with their donations. In light of the difficult economic times and the funding cutbacks, the College has experienced, your generosity is all the more important and appreciated. Thank you again!
