

APPLY TODAY! - PRACTICAL NURSING Program will begin this Fall 2020 term.
Email healthprograms@hccc.edu for the application and further information.

A licensed practical nurse (LPN) takes care of basic duties in settings such as nursing homes, assisted living, and long-term care facilities.

DIVISION OF NURSING & HEALTH SCIENCES
is now accepting applications for our Fall 2020 class.

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION IS JUNE 30, 2020

For more information, contact:

Division of Nursing & Health Sciences
201-360-4338
healthprograms@hccc.edu

Linda Schultz-Whitlock, M.Ed., BSN, RN
Director, Practical Nursing Program
lschultzwhitlock@hccc.edu
201-360-4226

This is a 46-credit certificate program that includes 16 credits of general education courses and 30 credits of specialized nursing.

REQUIREMENTS FOR PROGRAM ADMISSION:

- High School Graduate or GED
- College Placement Test – Exit Academic Foundations
- Complete the following three college courses with a minimum GPA of 2.0:

English Composition I	3 Credits
Math for Health Science	3 Credits
Human Biology	4 Credits
- Successful completion of a standardized program entrance exam
- Medical Clearance
- Criminal Background Clearance
- Two References

If you want more information, you can also visit: <https://www.hccc.edu/nursing/> and check out the information packet for Practical Nursing (LNP) certificate program.