HCCC Foundation Art Collection Presents Unique Opportunities for Inspiration

Every day — at nearly every turn — students, faculty staff and visitors at Hudson County Community College may view, enjoy and draw inspiration from works of art by world-renowned painters, lithographers, photographers, sculptors and other artists. The works are there — in the public areas at both the HCCC Journal Square and North Hudson Higher Education Center campuses — on permanent display as part of the HCCC Foundation Art Collection, the only one of its kind among county colleges in New Jersey. Included in the Collection’s more than 200 works are: photographs by William Wegman (best known for the photos of his Weimaraner dogs), Gordon Parks and Ernst Haas; lithographs by Ben Shahn and Will Barnett; an 1871 oil landscape by Hudson River School painter Edmund Darch Lewis; sculpture by Chakaia Booker; a digital print with hand lithography by Faith Ringgold; two prints by Sol LeWitt; and a rubber-stamp print by Chuck Close.

It was just six years ago that the College’s President Dr. Glen Gabert, the HCCC Board of Trustees and the HCCC Foundation Board of Directors initiated the Collection, and it coincided with the inauguration of the College’s Fine Arts studies program. The purpose for the collection was — and is — to enrich the lives of the community and to provide a point of reference and inspiration for the Fine Arts students. Thanks to a grant from the Independence Bank Community Foundation, which also funded the

Employee Courtesy Award Nominee Form Available

Nominations are currently being accepted for Hudson County Community College’s employee recognition program.

Through the HCCC Foundation’s generosity, each year up to two cash awards of $500 will be made to recognize employees who consistently demonstrate outstanding service to HCCC students and employees. Nominations for the HCCC Foundation Employee Courtesy Service Award must be full-time employees with at least one year of service.

Any member of staff can nominate an employee for the award. Nominations must be in writing and express why the employee exhibits stellar service and give specific examples. Nominations can be submitted throughout the year as acts of kindness are performed.

All nominees will receive an acknowledgement from the HCCC Foundation.

Winners will be determined by a committee appointed by the College President, which will include a member of the Foundation.

Winners will be announced during the Spring 2012 semester.

Nomination forms are available at the College’s internal MyHudson portal (URL: https://myhudson.hccc.edu).

For additional information, please contact Vice President for Development Joseph Sansone at (201) 360-4006 or jsansone@hccc.edu.

Communications Department Brings New Media to Users in Advertising

ONLINE ADVERTISING AND SOCIAL MEDIA

From December 2011 through mid-January 2012, Hudson County Community College’s Communications Department embarked on an online advertising campaign. The ads — extremely targeted to prospective students in Hudson County — received more than 6 million impressions or displays on Facebook, and nearly 500,000 on Google. When users clicked on the ads, they were brought to a Spring 2012 page created on Facebook, which gave viewers more spring registration information, along with the ability to email or register online!

Social media is still growing at the College! A new fan page has been created at Facebook (Continued on page 12)

Spring Enrollment: Institutional Research

By Dr. Kris Krishnan, Associate Dean, Institutional Research & Planning

The official tenth day enrollment count for the spring 2012 semester was calculated on Feb. 3, 2012 and Hudson County Community College (HCCC) is celebrating a new record for spring enrollment. The final tenth day count represents a 7.1 percent increase over last year’s spring enrollment of 8,677 students. Six hundred and sixteen more students will be attending classes at HCCC than the previous spring. The total degree credits grew 7.0% in the same period. The tables below show the spring headcount, FTE, degree credits, and student credit load growth over the last year.

Dr. Kris Krishnan, Associate Dean, Institutional Research & Planning, will present “Academic Policies, Procedures, and Student Success” at the Association for Institutional Research’s Annual Forum in June. The presentation will discuss the role of academic policies and procedures in ensuring student success.

Angela Tuzzo, Assistant Director of Student Activities, has received a Campus Event Planner of the Year Award from Power Performers in the Most Memorable Event category.

The Fine Arts Department has scheduled an end-of-year student exhibition at the Jersey City Brennan Courthouse Rotunda Gallery from April 9 to May 7, in collaboration with the Hudson County Office of Cultural & Heritage Affairs/Tourism Development. The exhibition will feature the work of graduating Studio Arts and Computer Art majors.

Hudson County Community College hosted Northwest Florida State College for its fact finding visit on Tuesday, Feb. 7. Its focus was on HCCC’s experience during Project PATH and the associated implementation model and timeline, interaction with the consultants, the training experience of HCCC employees, roles and level of effort and participation, and the features and functions of the systems.

ESL faculty Dr. Nancy Booth and Jeff DeMuro will present at NJTESOL, a state professional organization for Teaching of English to Speakers of Other Languages, on the topic of teaching adult ESL students and finding main ideas in reading selections, in May. Aneta Braczyk will co-present “Using Games to Engage Students” with Katherine Howard, a Wyckoff School District teacher, at the same conference.

Terre Lintner, adjunct ESL faculty and Senior Editor with Cambridge University Press, used her experience in HCCC classroom to present a workshop “How to Make Group Work More Effective” to attendees of NYTESOL in early February.

ESL faculty presented at the Tri-State Best Practices Conference “Innovation and Creativity in the Community College Classroom” hosted by Bergen Community College on Feb. 25; Dr. Nancy Booth, Associate Professor of ESL, Syeda Jesmin, Assistant Professor and Coordinator of Learning Communities, Sharon D’Agastino, Assistant Professor, and Sylvia Robb, instructor of Psychology, led the panel “Learning Communities: A Creative Thematic Approach for Students’ Academic Success.” Maria Schirita, instructor of ESL, presented two workshops: “Creating Student-Centered, Interactive Lessons” and “Teaching Critical Thinking through YouTube.”

Elena Nehrebecki, Director of the ESL/Bilingual Program, will explore a concept of asynchronicity in assessment and report on different models of ESL/Bilingual programs at her two presentations selected for the international TESOL convention in Philadelphia this March.

Hudson County Community College hosted a free two-day workshop titled “Introduction to Applied Behavior Analysis and Teaching Verbal Behavior in the Classroom” on Feb. 10 and 11. The workshop, sponsored by The Foundation for Autism Training and Education, was designed for teachers, students and parents of children on the autistic spectrum. Pictured from left are Wendy Paul of the Culinary Conference Center, the event site; Thomas Caffrey, facilitator of the workshop and HCCC Instructor Alison Friars.

STATE OF THE COLLECTION

Thanks to the generosity of individual donors, the Foundation, and the Board of Trustees, there are now over 125 works of art installed around campus: 50 at the new North Hudson site and 75 in the campus buildings in Jersey City. The Foundation Art Collection now numbers over 200 pieces. We hope to install over 70 more works of art in 2012.

ARTIST NEWS/UPDATES

Elizabeth Catlett was recently featured on artmarket-monitor.com in the Feb. 13 story “Elizabeth Catlett Moves into the Light,” after her National Public Radio profile. Born in 1915 in Washington, D.C., Catlett was the grandchild of slaves. She won a scholarship to Carnegie Institute of Technology in Pittsburgh, but after Carnegie refused to accept her because she was black, she went to Howard University. In 1940, she became the first black woman to receive a Master’s degree in Fine Arts from the University of Iowa. Her mentor, artist Grant Wood, encouraged her to make artwork about what she knows best. She focused on depicting black people, women especially, in their struggle for equality. While talking about why her work has not been as visible to the public as it could have been, she said, “I, as an artist, a black woman artist, have been invisible in the art world for years.” This is changing, as her work is being rediscovered by a new generation of art lovers. See Elizabeth Catlett’s artwork, “Danyas y Leithis” installed at 119 Newkirk Street on the first floor hallway, and the work “Gossip” in 70 Sip Avenue (third floor, by the elevator).

Frank Gehry, one of the world’s most important architects, recently received the American Institute for Architects’ Twenty-Five Year Award for the Gehry Residence in Santa Monica. Gehry has been awarded many major awards for his work including the Pritzker, the National Medal of Arts, and the 1999 AIA Gold Medal. Gehry is perhaps best known for the Guggenheim Museum in Bilbao and the Disney Concert hall in Los Angeles.

The HCCC Foundation Art Collection owns a Gehry “Wiggle Chair” which we hope to install in the coming year on campus. The “Wiggle Chair” is part of his "Easy Edges" series from 1972. When Gehry designs both buildings and furniture, he likes to use unusual materials. He used an everyday material, cardboard, to make this chair. These chairs are constructed, “with the architect’s care as well as being very robust and stable.” Made from approximately 60 layers of cardboard, they are held together by hidden screws with fibreglass edging. (Editor’s note: Please see page 1 to view the “Wiggle Chair” right, center.)

We recently installed artwork by Kiki Smith, “Concordance Excerpt,” in the hallway outside the student lounge on the second floor of the new North Hudson Building. If you like that piece, and want to see more, “Visionary Sugar: Works by Kiki Smith,” an exhibition of Smith’s new work, opened on Feb. 4 at the Neuberger Museum of Art of Purchase College, State University of New York.

COLLECTION TOURS

Tours of the Foundation Art Collection may be arranged by contacting Andrea Siegel, Coordinator, at (201) 360-4007 or email, ASiegel@hccc.edu.

SPRING 2012 WRITING CENTER CONTEST

Hudson County Community College’s Writing Center is holding a writing contest for students this semester. Deadline submission is 12 p.m. on Monday, April 16, 2012. Entries must include students’ full name, telephone number, student identification number, and email address. Students may submit a maximum of three entries.

Students may submit any type of writing including essays, memoirs, articles, short stories, screenplays, teleplays, one-act scripts (3,000 words maximum), long or short poems, or lyric poetry.

SUBMITTING ENTRIES
1. Submit hard copies to the Writing Center (2 Enos Place, Room 204) or email to jcaniglia@hccc.edu (include “WC Student Writing Contest” in the subject line).
2. Entries must be original, written primarily in English, unpublished and unproduced.
3. Entries must be typed on one side of 8-1/2 x 11 white paper. Scripts and poems may be either double-or single-spaced; all other manuscripts must be double-spaced. Student’s name, address, phone number and category must appear on the first page.
4. Entries that are more than one page long must be stapled.

Every entry will be read by the judges, whose decisions are final. Submitted manuscripts will not be returned; students are advised to keep a copy for their records.

Only students registered at the College are eligible to enter. Winners will be notified to receive their prizes and will receive recognition in a future edition of HCCC Happenings.

For more information, please contact Joseph Caniglia at jcaniglia@hccc.edu or (201) 360-5346.
Hudson County Community College announced that tickets are available for the presentation of America Ferrera, part of the 2012 Conference Series. “Una Noche con America Ferrera” is scheduled for Thursday, March 1, 2012 at 6:00 p.m. at the Hudson County Community College, located at 161 Newkirk Street in Jersey City – two blocks from the PATH station. Admission is free.

America Ferrera, perhaps best known for her role as “Betty Suarez” in the ABC television series “Ugly Betty,” won an Emmy for Outstanding Lead Actress in a Comedy Series for her performance. She has also won a Golden Globe Award and an ALMA Award. Recently, America has been a recurring character in the series “The Good Wife,” on CBS. She also was a co-star in the animated film “How to Train Your Dragon,” and is slated to appear in the sequel to the same film. Other credits in feature films include: “Lords of Dogtown,” “How the Garcia Girls Spent Their Summer,” and the two films in the “The Sisterhood of the Traveling Pants” series.

America Ferrera has served as an artist-ambassador for the global humanitarian organization Save the Children, and raised more than $44,000 for the construction of a new elementary school in Mali. For her work with Save the Children in Mali, she was recognized with the Legacy of Cesar Chavez Award and the 2011 Global Action Award for Education and Development. Additionally, she was presented with the Heritage Hispanic Foundation’s Inspire Award and the 2011 Global Legacy of Cesar Chavez Award for her commitment to helping families in need and youth education.

“We are happy to have America Ferrera with us for an evening on our campus,” said Glen Gabert, President of Hudson County Community College. “She is a model to be emulated, and should be applauded for her talent, her acting choices, and most importantly, her dedication to promoting education and improving the lives of children.”

Tickets for the event are limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis. They can be purchased in person at the Hudson County Community College, located at 161 Newkirk Street in Jersey City – two blocks from the PATH station.

Estudiantes a Graduarse … Cuenten su historia!

Hudson County Community College está en busca de historias interesantes acerca de nuestros destacados alumnos a graduarse, para utilizarlas en la publicidad de la próxima ceremonia de Graduación, así como materiales de publicidad en general.

El Departamento de Comunicaciones de HCCC estará complacido en escuchar a cualquier estudiante, que esté dispuesto a tener contacto con la prensa durante la temporada de Graduación.

Algunos ejemplos de historias incluyen:
- Estudiantes de 50 años de edad o mayores
- Sirvieron recientemente en las Fuerzas Armadas
- Conexiones familiares (parentesco con personal o alumnos de HCCC)
- Miembros de la misma familia graduándose juntos

endowment of a Fine Arts studies scholarship, the Foundation purchased its first six works—watercolors by Keith Smith and Carl Burger, a photograph by Barbara Madsen, a mixed media assemblage by Tony Lordi, a lithograph/collograph/embossing/woodcut by Mayumi Sarai, and an oil-and-acrylic painting by Jon Rappeleye.

The criteria for choosing pieces to be included in the Collection have remained the same over the years. Pieces are selected for the mastery they display that will be useful for instruction. In the Collection’s earliest stages, selections were also determined by whether or not the artist was a current or former New Jersey resident, but that standard has since been expanded to include works by major American artists, too. Works by HCCC students are also to be included in the Collection, and pieces by Daniel Guzman and Lauren Clemente will be installed this year.

In addition to selecting and installing works, the Collection’s Coordinator, Dr. Andrea Siegel, shares information from the art world with the College’s Fine Arts instructional staff, and provides information about possible student internships and public art competitions for students. Dr. Siegel also works in conjunction with Fine Arts staff on the Student Art Awards process and program, makes presentations to the College’s Fine Arts students and assists them in preparing portfolios, and purchases materials that may be used by students and staff. Dr. Siegel also arranges for the Foundation Collection Artists’ Talks, which are open to the entire community.

The HCCC Foundation Art Collection has since grown to its present stature thanks to the generosity of its many donors. Since its inception, many pieces have been directly donated by individuals, estates, corporations and other organizations. Monetary donations are maximized by matching funds, and are utilized not only for acquiring works of art, but also for instructional materials and special events.

“Our wish with the Foundation Art Collection has been to surround our community in beautiful, imaginative, innovative and inspiring works that will enrich their thinking and their lives,” said HCCC President Gabert. “We are very grateful to all of the Art Collection benefactors for their generosity and thoughtfulness.”

Anyone wishing to donate to the HCCC Foundation Art Collection may do so by contacting Joseph Sansone, HCCC Vice President for Development, at (201) 360-4006 or emailing jsansone@hccc.edu.

Print

Communications continued the use of QR codes in its print marketing! Print ads for spring registration in The Jersey Journal, The Hudson Reporter, The Courier Times, River View Observer, Cambio, El Especialito and El Universal bore a QR code directing users to the College’s website for new and prospective students.

Cable

In addition to cable ads on Comcast Spotlight, Cablevision and News 12, Communications ran online ads in English and Spanish, directing viewers to the College’s webpage.

SAVE THE DATE: PHOTO SHOOT

If you’ve been wanting to participate in one of the department’s photo shoots, your next opportunity is coming up! Communications will be having a photo shoot on Wednesday, April 18 in Journal Square. Please contact (201) 360-4060 for more information or visit our offices at 26 Journal Square, 14th Floor for more information! In addition, see the College’s fan page on Facebook for updates!
