

BUSINESS LAW

BUS 230Business Law*3.0 UNITS

Provides a basic knowledge of business law covering the nature, structure and processes of our legal systems and the laws involving constitutional law, contracts, intellectual property, torts, and product liability. The case study approach will be used extensively, and the ethical issues in the business environment will also be addressed throughout the course.