

INTRODUCTION TO FILM

---

FLM 101*Introduction to Film*3.0 UNITS

This is a basic course in film history focusing on the technical and artistic evolution of the medium and including the basic vocabulary of the cinema. Students view films from a variety of periods and genres by influential directors and studios, considering the political and social impact as well as historic perspective.