
MANAGEMENT OF SMALL ENTERPRISE

MAN 231 Management of Small Enterprise3.0 UNITS

Introduction to the challenges and problems encountered in small business operations. Specific evaluation of organizational, financial, and personnel aspects are studied. The role of the Small Business Administration is examined as well as other types of assistance to the small enterprise. Prerequisite: MAN 121 or permission of instructor.