INTRODUCTION PROBABILITIES AND STATISTICS

MAT 114   Introduction Probabilities and Statistics   3.0 UNITS
This course offers an analysis of the basic ideas and methods of collecting, tabulating, and representing data. Topics include frequency distributions, histograms and frequency polygons: measures of central tendency, variability percentiles; Z-scores, elementary probability, binomial and normal distributions; linear regression and correlation, and hypothesis testing.