Tim Daly is a native of Jersey City, New Jersey who now resides in Hoboken, where his studio is also located. He was known early on for his paintings of the mostly unseen landscape surrounding Jersey City and the Meadowlands, and the urban industrial landscape of the New York/New Jersey Metro area. His subject matter has expanded to include the rest of the world.

Patrick Connors is an award-winning painter and graduate of the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts. His works are exhibited across the country and internationally in both private and public collections. He has taught linear perspective at the Graduate School of the New York Academy of Art, Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, and the Institute of Classical Architecture & Art: Manhattan and Rome Programs.

Paul Chidester is a painter at State College, Pennsylvania who teaches at Penn State. His recent paintings pose questions raised through a careful reworking of familiar landscape tropes that include walls, military fortifications, ruins, and natural and other architectural novelties.

The mission of the Hudson County Community College Department of Cultural Affairs is to provide supplementary programs to stimulate awareness of the arts and foster creativity. We strive to complement the efforts of HCCC with cultural events, community programs, and educational initiatives. Our goal is to transcend the understanding of visual and performing arts by closing the distance between the experience of art and everyday life in the community we serve.
