Transfer Glossary: Types of Agreements

Listed below are the most common types of transfer agreements and how each of them works. If you have any questions, please contact the Office of Transfer Pathways.

Articulation Agreement	An articulation agreement is an agreement that goes into detail about things such as <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Guaranteed admission</li> <li>• Acceptance of transfer credits</li> <li>• Eligibility for scholarships</li> <li>• Academic course requirements</li> </ul> These agreements help to provide students with a step-by-step guide for completing necessary course requirements and transferring credits to another school.
Dual Admissions	Dual Admissions is when a student is admitted to two institutions at the same time. For example, a student can be seeking a degree at HCCC and already admitted to a four-year transfer institution, with access to their campus and services. Their HCCC classes would then transfer to the four-year institution, once they complete their Associate’s Degree.
2+2 Agreements	2 years at the community college and 2 years at the four-year institution.)                  2+2 programs are designed for students who take half of a degree at one institution and the second half at another institution. Usually, this is completing an associate degree at a community college and transferring into a four-year institution for bachelor’s degree completion. A student’s enrollment status may cause an agreement like this to vary in length.
3+1 Agreements	(3 years at the community college and 1 year at the four-year institution.)                  A student earns their associate degree at a community college, stays for an additional year at the college as they take upper-level coursework, then transfers in their final year to the four-year institution to complete their bachelor’s degree. These pathways, designed by both the community college and university, minimize the risks associated with the transfer and set learners up for success.
Reverse Transfer	Reverse transfer is when students transfer credits back to a previously attended institution to complete a degree even after leaving that institution. These agreements realize that students often transfer before completing a degree. Institutions collaborate closely, obtaining necessary paperwork and submitting the official transcripts for formal awarding of the degree. Students are encouraged to complete their Associates degree to maximize transfer credit and reduce cost.

Transfer Success Coach: Madeline Fermin

Can you share with us a few resources that helped you succeed in college as a student?

As a commuter student and later at the same time working full time, I knew it was important to take advantage of all the resources the college offered to be successful. I spent a lot of time in the college library. NJCU library was then and currently accommodates students, with spacious and comfortable group and individual study rooms. It allowed me to form study groups with my classmates. The library was always my go-to place to do my research paper, study for midterms and finals. During my time in school, I knew it was also important to have good time management skills. Having time management helped me improve my organizational skills, overcome procrastination, and, most importantly, reduce stress. These resources formed a strong support system that contributed to my success as a college student.

As the transfer success coach at NJCU, how will you guide students who are interested in applying to the HCCC/NJCU CONNECT program?

As the Transfer Success Coach at NJCU, my primary goal is to support and guide students who are interested in applying to the HCCC/NJCU CONNECT program and navigate the transfer process successfully and seamlessly. I will begin by providing personalized help to the students, by offering information sessions, one-to-one meetings and establishing an effective student service collaboration between departments. This will help students understand the unique benefits and opportunities offered by the CONNECT program. By offering individualized guidance, addressing concerns promptly, and providing a sense of community, I aim to enhance the overall experience of students interested in applying to the HCCC/NJCU CONNECT program.

What advice would you give current HCCC students who are planning to continue their education after HCCC?

My advice for current HCCC students planning to continue their education after completing their studies is to plan and be well-informed to assure a successful transition to a four-year institution. Students should attend transfer fairs, open houses, information sessions, and other events that enable direct interaction with representatives from four-year institutions. This will help students gather information, ask questions, and make informed decisions about their transfer options. I would also advise students to take advantage of all the resources offered to them as future transfer students to maintain a strong academic standing. By following this advice and being part of the HCCC/NJCU CONNECT, students can start continuing their education after community college with confidence and preparation, ensuring a successful academic experience.

Transfer Champion: Anthony Figuero, Class of 2022

BIOLOGY (SCIENCE & MATHEMATICS), A.S.

BIOLOGY, B.S.

My name is Anthony Figueroa, and I earned my associate degree in biology (science and mathematics) in 2022 from Hudson County Community College (HCCC). Subsequently, I transferred to New Jersey City University (NJCU) to pursue my bachelor's degree in biology. These two academic institutions have proven invaluable in providing the support and preparedness necessary for my future. My current aim is to gain acceptance into medical school, and the knowledge I gained from both HCCC and NJCU has set me on the right path. One notable benefit of being a transfer student from HCCC is that, based on my performance, I could obtain the transfer presidential scholarship at NJCU. This scholarship has significantly eased financial burdens, allowing me to focus primarily on my studies. As I move forward in my academic journey, I am grateful for the foundation and opportunities these institutions have provided, positioning me for success in my pursuit of being admitted in medical school.

What motivated you to transfer from HCCC to NJCU?

The decision to transfer from Hudson County Community College to New Jersey City University was driven by my aspiration to continue with my academic journey and have a better comprehension of biology. In addition, I enrolled into NJCU because of its diverse, supportive, and affordable educational environment, presenting an opportunity for not only academic advancement but also personal and professional growth.

How did you navigate the transfer process, and were there specific resources or support services at HCCC and NJCU that played a crucial role in your successful transition?

Transferring between educational institutions initially posed challenges, which caused the process to be somewhat confusing and stressful. However, this transfer process facilitated by advisors at HCCC and the collaborative efforts of NJCU's admissions department, transfer resource center and financial aid office were essential in smoothing out the difficulties of the transition. Their unwavering support enabled me to identify and fulfill all necessary requirements, including transcripts and essays, and provided essential information regarding available scholarships.

In your experience, what advice would you give other students who are considering transferring to the NJCU?

For students thinking about transferring to NJCU, I highly recommend starting the transfer process as early as possible. This not only ensures a smooth transition but also allows you to secure spots for all your classes and build a schedule that fits your lifestyle. Also, maintaining constant communication with transfer advisors at both HCCC and NJCU is crucial to be successful as a transfer student. I recommend attending NJCU orientation sessions because you will talk with advisors from all the departments to answer your questions on the spot. Last, it's important to keep you informed about the application deadlines, class registration timelines, and complete financial aid processes to prevent unnecessary complications.

December 2023 Recap

HCCC|NJCU CONNECT Program Signing Ceremony

Each year, about one-quarter of Hudson County Community College graduates transfer to New Jersey City University, more than from any other community college. To help facilitate that, the institutions have partnered to launch an initiative known as the HCCC|NJCU CONNECT Program. Hudson County Community College President Christopher Reber and New Jersey City University President Andrés Acebo sign the HCCC|NJCU CONNECT transfer agreement, accompanied by students who will take part in the program.

Teen Magazine Pep Rally Introduces Lincoln High School Students to HCCC

Lincoln High School seniors were dancing in their seats (and often out of them as well) during a recent pep rally at Hudson County Community College (HCCC) hosted by Teen magazine. Labeled as a mini-open house, students gathered first in the college banquet hall, where they heard several motivational speeches, while also getting a chance to dance to tunes played by HOT 97 DJ Wallah.

The Office of Transfer Pathways Events

As part of their commitment to providing valuable resources for students, the office is organizing upcoming campus tours, offering prospective students an opportunity to explore the campus facilities, learn about academic programs, and connect with current students and faculty. Additionally, the office is hosting graduation workshops to support graduating students in their transition to the next phase of their academic journeys. Stay tuned for more details on these exciting initiatives!
