

Girls in Technology Symposium

Thursday, March 27th, 2025

8:30 AM – 2:00 PM

“Technology: Past, Present, and Future Student Display Contest”

Project Registration:

Register team projects with Chastity Farrell (cfarrell@hccc.edu), by emailing the following information.

1. Student team of two or three: names, emails, ages, grade level and school.
2. School contact information: Name, title, email address, phone number
3. Project title and short abstract: abstract should be 200 words or less

Please do not have students email submissions. Only school representatives should send the submissions as individual attachments – no Google drive, Dropbox, etc.

Project abstracts should be submitted no later than Monday, March 3rd.

Contest Rules:

1. Prepare a display that will fit on a 2x5 ft table and is no higher than 5 ½ feet tall. There will be space if you wish to bring written materials to display.
2. Floor space can be provided, in lieu of a table, but must be requested in advance. If you use floor space, your project must be no higher than 8 feet tall.
3. Project must be able to fit through a standard door frame.
4. Your challenge is to create a display that demonstrates the advances in technology, past, present and future, as related to the timeline you choose as your focus. Remember that your audience may not all be specialists in technology. Many visitors will be students from other schools and institutions.
5. Keep it simple but innovative!
6. There will be time allotted throughout the symposium for visitors to visit your display. You will be expected to be at your display to describe your project and answer questions during the allotted time.
7. Attendees will vote on the displays.
8. Voters will be asked to select the winning presentations based on:
  1. Clarity
  2. Originality
  3. Thoroughness
  4. Neatness

Awards will be announced at the closing of the symposium on Thursday, March 27th, 2025. Prizes and certificates will be awarded to the first-place winning team.

We look forward to your entry!
